

In loving memory of Christopher Carfi

October 1, 1987 - May 8, 2005

Christopher Carfi, passed away Sunday afternoon after a three year battle with cancer. Throughout his battle with the disease, Chris was always a member of the band, whether as a performer on the alto sax or as our number one supporter in the stands. During the 2002 season the band recognized his fight with the disease by wearing yellow ribbons on their uniforms. Chris is survived by his mother, Lisa, his younger sister, Samantha, and his youngest sister Alexis.
